ENGLISH STUDIES IN AFRICA

A Journal of the Humanities

VOLUME 17, 1974

WITWATERSRAND UNIVERSITY PRESS
JOHANNESBURG

VOLUME 17, 1974

CONTENTS

Articles

The verbicidal weasel: aspects of semantic change G. I. HUGHES . . . 1

Fruitfulness and sterility in the "Physician's" and "Pardoner's Tales" E. R. AMOILS . . . . . 17

Words on trial — verbal experiments and the current trends in modern German literature REINGARD NETHERSOLE . . . . . 39

"Pamela" and "Shamela": a reassessment THEO OLIVIER . . . . . 59

"The most 'harum-scarum' sort of novel we have ever encountered": Marryat's "The King's Own" and Shandyism SAM PICKERING JR . . . . . 71

The sense of society in "The Ambassadors" PAULINE FLETCHER . . . . 79

Compassionate realism in Conrad and "Under Western Eyes" W. R. MARTIN 89

Claudel, the poet of "Les Cinq Grandes Odes" — et l'Angleterre M. WHITAKER 101

Recent Publications . . . . . 53

Select Bibliography . . . . . 107

BOOKS REVIEWED

SMITH, ROWLAND Lyric and Polemic (Guy Butler) . . . . . 53

Printed in the Republic of South Africa by The Natal Witness (Pty.) Ltd., Pietermaritzburg, Natal.